

STIRRING THE WATERS

2008 Kentucky Baptist Fellowship
Christian Education Conference

WHERE: Baptist Seminary of Kentucky (Lexington)

WHEN: Saturday, October 25, 2008 - 9am to 3pm (lunch provided)

WHAT: Workshops designed to enhance your ministry

COST: $25 Individual/$20 each for five or more ($15 students)

INCENTIVES: $5 discount if registration/fees received by Oct. 1st

DR. JEFF WOODS

~How Congregations are tempted to find a quick fix~

~"Sustaining Organizations": Twelve balancing points for sustainability~

~Five variables that matter most in attaining congregational health & growth~

In his current role as Associate General Secretary for the American Baptist Churches, USA, Dr. Woods is responsible for encouraging the health and vitality of the 35 regions throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. He has written six books and over thirty articles. As a consultant and resource person, he has worked with groups in nearly every state and province in North America. His areas of expertise include leadership and organizational development.

SPECIAL FEATURE FOR MINISTERS

"Spiritual Renewal for Ministers"

Led by Dr. Daniel Vestal, Executive Coordinator, Cooperative Baptist Fellowship

Laity, clergy, and workers with preschool, children, youth and adults will benefit from workshops carefully designed to enhance gifts for ministry.

Register by sending name, address, email address and church for each person attending along with a check made payable to:

Baptist Seminary of Kentucky
631 S. Limestone Street
Lexington, KY 40508